FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Compete Sports Diversity Partners With The Express Conferences to Promote Sports Diversity and Inclusion

TEMPE, AZ – Compete Sports Diversity, an early leader in the sports diversity movement, is proud to announce its partnership with The Express Conferences. The partnership aims to promote sports diversity and inclusion, providing unique opportunities for both organizations.

Compete will offer its sports diversity education and marketing expertise as part of the partnership to support Express' efforts to provide a more diverse and inclusive environment at its conferences, thereby further extending its sphere of influence in the sports industry. Compete will also have the opportunity to showcase its products and services to a wider audience of industry professionals.

"Compete's vision is to 'Unite the World Through Sports,' said Eric Carlyle, Compete Sports Diversity CEO, "and there is no better way to do that than by connecting others and creating meaningful partnerships. Working with an amazing organization like Express does just that; we are very excited about this!"

The Express Conferences share Compete's commitment to diversity and inclusion in sports. "We are very excited about partnering with Compete Sports Diversity," said Roy Edmondson, CEO of The Express Conferences. "We look forward to raising the importance, awareness and value of Diversity and Inclusion to our attendees."

The partnership will include joint marketing efforts, event sponsorships and educational opportunities for conference attendees. Both organizations look forward to working together to promote sports diversity and inclusion to create a more welcoming industry.
